

8.28.2003: Work, Work, and more Work

I have been away from the computer lately due to work basically...working for my father in the office with some general work. Email is still completely functional and I encourage you to email me. Don't worry, the club is not dead and we are in fact trying to look for someone who will pay for the damn server so someone please step forward. Again, we will all pitch in! I expect to get information from any club member who wants to put a personal profile up. Personal profiles can include just about anything so long as they are not derogatory and aim to demote or attack others (including but NOT limited to race, sex, ethnicity, religion, and so forth). In the past, to give you some idea, profiles have included a favorite quote, map, gun, and a picture or two. You are not required to supply these if you have reservations. However, I would like to put basic information that involves posting your name, location, age, clan affiliation (if any), and something a little extra. Again, innovation and creativity is encouraged, it is entirely up to you. NOTE: people who get us permanent idlers will be blessed. Shiftey and Kevin, get us more idlers. I expect club admins to be semi-active. Lastly, check our CS News and Articles for the latest scoops on the game in general.

8.26.2003: Still Looking for Someone to Step Forward

Welcome to Club Krazed Alloys' official homepage. This site could not have been created without the generous support of a number of people who have sponsored us with many idlers, bots, and trivia. A special thanks goes out to SP|Ninja-Gaiden and [Aura]-fox for their contributions. Additionally, I would also like to take the time to acknowledge #zonefire | 3l3m3nt for his nice work on the images that are shown on this website. Without a doubt, images aside this site would look like a piece of crap.

As far as club news goes, we are still looking for someone who has an active paypal account with enough money to constantly fork over the required 60 dollars per month for our public club server. We still expect everyone who has committed to pay for the public server to fork over their fair share (this includes Robotics, Shiftey, Kevin, and anyone else who would like to be on this list) however we need someone who is responsible enough to subscribe to a subscription that will represent the club on the behalf of fusiongamer.

We have decided that anyone wanting admin on our future public server will have to pay at least five dollars towards its cost, and we reserve the right to refuse should an unusual circumstance arise. Anyone who pays us will also be able to get a club email in the form of `membername@krazedalloys.com` -- please email me at admin@krazedalloys.com if you are interested in this offer. Please note that this club is open to just about anyone, so being a part of the club is free in and of itself. However email and getting admin on our server will cost you the minimum five dollars. For exemptions to this rule, please contact me.
